How it works

Partner clinic onboarding process.

Customer journey and testing process

Step 1 – Ordering

Order placed online

A customer orders a test from medichecks.com and chooses to have their blood drawn at one of our partner clinics.

Step 2 – Clinic selection and booking

Choosing a blood draw location

They choose a clinic and receive a booking confirmation with clinic contact details and address to complete the booking with you.

Step 3 – Clinic visit

Having their blood draw

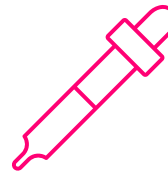

They visit you with their medichecks kit, which includes everything you need as a practitioner to draw their sample.

Step 4 – Verification

Verifying identity and payment

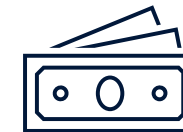

They show you their phlebotomy invoice inside the kit to show this visit is pre-paid, their unique identifiers will also be available for you to confirm customer name, DOB and address.

Step 5 – Blood draw

Complete the blood draw

The sample is drawn, and the kit is packed up and given back to the customer to post at a priority post box

Step 6 – Billing

Collate bookings and invoice us

You will then invoice us for any bloods drawn during each monthly period.

Billing and payments

Streamlined procedures for speedy remuneration

- A spreadsheet is provided for you to log the tests conducted at your clinic and you would raise an invoice for the total amount of tests that month to accompany the spreadsheet.
- It's advisable to maintain a copy of this spreadsheet for your personal records and send a fresh spreadsheet each month.
- You would then send the completed spreadsheet and invoice to accounts@medichecks.com
- The cut-off date for submitting the spreadsheet is before the last day of each month.
- Payments are made on the 2nd Friday of every month.

Testimonials

What our partner clinics say about working with us.

It's important to hear reviews from our partner clinics, rather than just listening to us tell you how great being part of our network is!

So that's exactly what we've done...

'We love the speed of the service'

'The level of communication is great'

'Seamless process'

'Great system, easy processes, lots of people booking with us'

'Good communication and prompt payment'

'Easy to book and organise blood draws'

Accreditations

We are proud of our accreditations and those of our laboratory partners.

We have achieved ISO13485 accreditation across our medical devices and management systems.

Our laboratories are all UKAS accredited, meaning they're held to the same standards as laboratories used by the NHS.

We have also achieved ISO27001 accreditation for our Information Security Management.
